

Please allow Wisconsin residents to continue to be protected under Wisconsin's Do Not Call List. With hectic lifestyles and demanding careers, it is nice to be able to enjoy our evenings together without the telephone ringing several times per night for unwanted telephone calls from telemarketers. This is our home and our private space. We pay for the phone and the phone service. Telemarketers are an invasion of our privacy in our home. Let the marketers support the US Postal Service.